Insurance Agreement

Before this insurance contract is entered into you must make a fair presentation of risk to us in accordance with Section 3 of the Insurance Act 2015.

In summary you must:

- a Disclose to us every material circumstance which you know or ought to know. Failing that, you must give us sufficient information that would put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries in order to reveal material circumstances. A matter is material if it would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer as to whether to accept the risk, or the terms of the insurance (including premium);
- b Make the disclosure in clause a) above in a reasonably clear and accessible way; and
- c Ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct, and that every material representation of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

For the purposes of clause a) above, you are expected to know the following:

- d If you are an individual, what is known to the individual and anybody who is responsible for arranging his or her insurance.
- e If you are not an individual, what is known to anybody who is part of your senior management or anybody who is responsible for arranging your insurance.
- f Whether you are an individual or not, what should reasonably have been revealed by a reasonable search of information available to you.

The information may be held within your organisation, or by any third party (including but not limited to subsidiaries, affiliates, the broker, or any other person who will be covered under the insurance). If you are insuring subsidiaries, affiliates or other parties, we expect you to have included them in your enquiries, and that you will inform us if you have not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

If, prior to entering into this insurance contract, you breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to us are set out below.

- a If your breach of duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:
 - i We may avoid the contract, and refuse to pay all claims; and
 - ii We need not return any of the premiums paid.

- b If your breach of duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, our remedy shall depend upon what we would have done if you had complied with the duty of fair presentation:
 - i If we would not have entered into the contract at all, we may avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but must return the premiums paid.
 - ii If we would have entered into the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the contract is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if we so require.
 - iii In addition, if we would have entered into the contract, but would have charged a higher premium (whether the terms relating to matters other than premium would have been the same or different), we may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims). In those circumstances, we shall only pay $W\%$ of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $W = (\text{premium actually charged} / \text{higher premium}) \times 100$.

If, prior to entering into a variation to this insurance contract, you shall breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to us are set out below.

- a If your breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:
 - i We may by notice to you treat the contract as having been terminated from the time when the variation was concluded; and
 - ii We need not return any of the premiums paid.
- b If your breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, our remedy shall depend upon what we would have done if you had complied with the duty of fair presentation:
 - i If the total premium was increased or not changed as a result of the variation and:
 - a We would not have agreed to the variation at all, we may treat the contract as if the variation had never been made, but must in that event return any additional premium paid.
 - b We would have agreed to the variation to the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if we so require.
 - c In addition, if we would have agreed to the variation but would have increased the premium or increased the premium by more than it did (whether the terms relating to matters other than premium would have been the same or different), then we may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, we shall only pay $X\%$ of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{total premium actually charged} / \text{premium we would have charged}) \times 100$.
 - ii If the total premium was reduced as a result of the variation and:
 - a We would not have agreed to the variation at all, we may treat the contract as if the variation was never made and may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, we shall only pay $Y\%$ of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $Y = (\text{total premium actually charged} / \text{original premium}) \times 100$.
 - b We would have agreed to the variation on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if we so require.
 - c In addition, if we would have agreed to the variation but would have increased the premium or would not have reduced the premium or would have reduced it by less than it did (whether the terms relating to matters other than premium would have been the same or different), we may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, we shall only pay $Z\%$ of what we would otherwise have been required to pay, where $Z = (\text{total premium actually charged} / \text{original premium if we would not have changed it and otherwise the increased or reduced total premium the Company would have charged}) \times 100$.

We must prove that any breach specified in 1 or 2 above is deliberate or reckless.

We recommend that you keep a record of all information including copies of letters supplied to us and your insurance broker. A copy of all information you provide to us or your insurance broker provides to us on your behalf will be supplied to you upon request.

This insurance contract is also subject to the following statements being accurate and complete unless before this policy commences you have disclosed such information to us and we have agreed to that information in writing.

- a that neither you or any director or officer of your business has:
 - i been convicted or charged (but not yet tried) with a criminal offence other than a motoring offence
 - ii received an official caution for a criminal offence within the last 3 years other than a motoring offence
 - iii ever been declared bankrupt and/or been a director of a company which has gone into liquidation, administration or receivership
 - iv ever knowingly failed to conform to legislation pertaining to health and safety at work
- b no insurer has ever:
 - i declined a proposal for insurance
 - ii not invited a renewal
 - iii cancelled a policy
 - iv imposed special conditions or requested extra precautions to be taken by you.

This means that if either of the above statements later turns out to be inaccurate or incomplete then depending on whether you acted deliberately and recklessly or carelessly we may be entitled to avoid the contract and refuse to pay all claims or charge a higher premium or impose different terms.

Conditions and Exclusions

applying to the whole policy

General conditions

General Conditions In the following conditions the word you also includes any other person insured under the policy.

- 1 The policy, insurance agreement, schedule and any endorsements should be read as if they are one document.
- 2 You will take all reasonable steps to protect the property, prevent accidents and comply with laws, bye laws or regulations and take reasonable care in the selection and supervision of employees.
- 3 You must tell us of any change of circumstances after the start of the insurance which increases the risk of injury or damage. You will not be insured under the policy until we have agreed in writing to accept the increased risk.
- 4 If you or anyone acting for you makes a claim under this policy knowing the claim to be false, we will not pay the claim and all cover under the policy stops.
- 5 If you decide you do not want to accept the policy, or any subsequent renewal of it, please tell us (or your insurance intermediary) within 14 days of receiving the policy or renewal notice. We may, at our discretion, charge you for the time you have been on cover, including insurance premium tax.
- 6 We have the right to cancel this policy or any section, or part of it, by giving 14 days' notice in writing by registered letter to your last known address.
- 7 If we admit liability for a claim but there is a dispute as to the amount to be paid, the dispute will be referred to an arbitrator, the arbitrator will be appointed jointly by you and us in accordance with the law at the time. You may not take any legal action against us over the dispute before the arbitrator has reached a decision.
- 8 If you die we will insure your legal personal representatives for any liability you had previously incurred under the policy provided always they keep to the terms of the policy.
- 9 If the policy is subject to a warranty, any breach of that warranty shall be a bar to any claim. Any breach which occurred before the period of insurance during which the claim occurred will not be regarded as a bar to a claim occurring in that period of insurance.
- 10 If you pay the premium to us using our Direct Debit instalment scheme, we will have the right (which we may choose not to exercise) to renew the policy each year and continue to collect premiums using this method. We may vary the terms of the policy (including the premium) at renewal. If you decide that you do not want us to renew the policy, provided you tell us (or your insurance intermediary) before the next renewal date, we will not renew it.
- 11 Where we refer in the policy to the payment of premiums this shall include payment by monthly instalments. If you pay by this method the policy remains an annual contract. The date of payment and the amount of the instalment are governed by the terms of the credit agreement. If an instalment is not received by the due date then, subject to the Consumer Credit Act 1974 (if it applies), the credit agreement and the policy will be cancelled immediately.
- 12 You must tell us immediately any building or part of any building becomes unoccupied and pay an additional premium if required. We shall have the right to change the terms and conditions of the policy and you must action any risk improvement measures that we may require.
- 13 You must give us immediate notice in the event of building, demolition or excavation operations being commenced on any adjoining site. In such event we shall have the right to vary or cancel the cover provided by the policy for damage caused by subsidence, ground heave or landslip.

Telling us about your claim

- 1 If an insured needs to make a claim, they notify us as soon as possible.
- 2 If an insured instructs their own solicitor or accountant without telling us, they will be liable for costs that are not covered by this policy.
- 3 A claim form can be downloaded at www.arag.co.uk/newclaims or requested by telephoning us on 0330 303 1955 between 9am and 5pm on weekdays (except bank holidays).
- 4 The completed claim form and supporting documentation can be sent to us by email, post or fax. Further details are set out in the claim form itself.

What happens next?

- 1 Within five working dates of receiving all the information needed to assess the availability of cover under the policy, we will write to the insured either:
 - a. confirming cover under the terms of this policy and advising the insured of the next steps to progress their claim; or
 - b. if the claim is not covered, we will explain in full the reason why and advise whether we can assist in another way
- 3 When a representative is appointed they will try to resolve the insured's dispute without delay, arranging mediation whenever appropriate.
- 4 We will check on the progress of the insured's claim with the appointed advisor from time to time. Sometimes matters cannot be resolved quickly, particularly if other side is slow to cooperate or a legal timetable is decided by the courts.
